SERMON LATER – REFLECTION

1. By today's standards, would the rich, young man be considered a good person? How do you think you would compare morally to him?
2. If you were in the position of the rich, young man, what would you have done differently? Or would you have responded in the same way?
3. What is the difference between Christianity and the false religions of the world with regards to human merit?
4. Why are people so resistant to receiving salvation as a free gift? Do you find yourself trying to earn your salvation?
5. Can you think of anything that God might want you to give up to follow Him? Why would it be hard to give this up?
