

When Your Worst Is Your Best Hope of Immanuel

11.28.2021 ♦ Rev. KC Wong ♦ Matthew 1:18-25 & Isaiah 7:14

Getting Started:

1. The Hope for a Restless World - Jesus
(Matthew 1:20-21)
2. The Hope for Restless Hearts - Immanuel
(Matthew 1:22-23 & Isaiah 7:14)

Wrapping Up: Colossians 1:27

Sermonlater ...

1. What is Hope to you?
2. What is the difference between “Hope” and “the Hope of Glory” Paul wrote about in Colossians 1:27?
3. It has been said, “Man can live 40 days without food, three days without water, eight minutes without air, but only one second without hope.”
 - a. Why is hope so important?
 - b. Why does the restless world need more than the hope they have now?
 - c. How has the hope of Jesus and the hope of Immanuel transformed the restless hearts in this restless world?
4. Share the moment in your life when “the worst felt like your best” and how the hope of Immanuel brought you through?
