3. Demanded Life (20-21)

Conclusion: Life is found with Jesus in God's kingdom; let's put the desire for Him above all else.

1. How often do you evaluate your desires—that is, what desires you are putting first in your life? What makes it difficult see this accurately about ourselves?
2. What (besides Jesus) do you look to for security in your life? How can you tell if relying on these things interferes with your faith in Christ?
3. Would you say that you desire Jesus (and God's kingdom) more, less, or the same as you did when you first became a Christ-follower? What factors have contributed to this change (or stability) over the years?
4. Write a one-sentence statement that expresses what you want to live for as your first desire in life. Is there anything in your life that is inconsistent or contradictory to this statement? How could you begin to address these inconsistencies?
